Back to the Mountain Top

Jesus once again goes to the mountain-top to pray. We too are encourages to carve out space and time out in our everyday lives for quiet, for reflection, for prayer or meditation; for whatever it is that we do to nourish that deeper spiritual heart of ourselves. It is so important.

The famous story of Jesus walking on the water follows in the Gospel today. What a shock the disciples must have received! Initially Peter is so brave and enthusiastic. Peter is able to walk on the water until he notices the wind, then fear takes over and he begins to sink.

If you have read the book The Shack (and if you haven't I highly recommend it!) you might remember a scene where the main character, Mack, like Peter in today's Gospel, is full of fear, mostly about what might happen in the future. Jesus is clear to Mack that he lives in the present and that we waste time trying to play God and control what might happen in the future: 'You neither believe I am good nor know deep in your heart that I love you. You sing about it, you talk about it, but you don't know it' (The Shack, p.151)

Jesus' message for Mack in the story; for Peter in the Gospel and for all of today is 'Why did you doubt?' What eliminates our awareness of the love of God? We are urged to keep our eyes fixed on him. It is in the present that Jesus lives, not in our fears about the future or worries about the past.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Why Eve?

- God was worried that Adam would frequently become lost in the garden because he would not ask for directions.
- 9. God knew that one day Adam would require someone to locate and hand him the remote.
- 8. God knew Adam would never go out and buy himself a new fig leaf when his wore out and would therefore need Eve to buy one for him.
- 7. God knew Adam would never be able to make a doctor's, dentist's or haircut appointment by himself.
- 6. God knew Adam would never remember which night to put the garbage on the curb.
 - 5. God knew if the world was to be populated, men would never be able to handle the pain and discomfort of childbearing.
 - 4. As the Keeper of the Garden, Adam would never remember where he left his tools.
 - Apparently, Adam needed someone to blame his troubles on when God caught him hiding in the garden.
 - 2. As the Bible says, "It is not good for man to be alone."

And, finally, the Number 1 reason why God created Eve....

1. When God finished the creation of Adam, He stepped back, scratched his head, and said, "I can do better than that!"

HAVE A WONDERFUL WEEK
